Georgetown, 10th October 1915.

IN THE MATTER OF THE INDIA COMPANIES ACT, 1912, AND SEVERAL STATUTES THEREIN.

MAHARAJA PURUSHOTAM NARAYAN (IN LIQ.).
It is hereby notified that the High Court of Madras has by order, dated the 1st day of August 1915,

STATISTICAL CHIEF REPORT—1923 AGRICULTURE—THIRD REPORT.

The average of the crop yields per acre in the Madras Presidency during the five years ending 1922-23 has represented 51.4 per cent of the total area under production in India.

5. The area sown with groundnut in the Madras Presidency in 1922-23 was 1,211,361 acres. When compared with the area of 2,364,562 acres accounted for the corresponding period of last year, it reveals an increase of 7.3 per cent.

6. The increases in groundnut yields in the Madras Presidency, North Arcot and Tanjore may be attributed to the result of timely rains at sowing time. The increased area in Madras, Coimbatore and Tanjore are up to some of the first areas in which the increase in crop of the previous year.

7. The increase in crop throughout in Madras except in parts of Coimbatore have been increased. The yields were increased.

8. The production of the crop is generally satisfactory. The crop was affected by drought in some extent in Bellary and Madras and reduced from an attack of heavy caterpillars in parts of Coimbatore, North Arcot and South Arcot.

9. The wholesale price of groundnut shifted, per hundred canted of 50 lbs. as quoted from Coimbatore market in the first of September was Rs. 4-3-0 in the early stage of the year, Rs. 2-11-6 in the middle and Rs. 2-3-0 in the early stage of the year compared with the prices reported in August 1922, prices have fallen from 8 to 12 per cent.

10. Figures of area by districts are given below:—

 No. 1, 1933 of 1933—MADRAS GOVERNMENT—REVENUE.

• Bill is to be introduced in the Council of the Government of Fort St. George assembled for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations.

Under rule 13 of the Madras Legislative Council Rules, the following Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons, is published for general information :—

BILL No. 17 OF 1933.

A Bill further to amend the Madras Impartible Estates Act for certain purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Madras Impartible Estates Act, II of 1904, for the purposes hereinafter appearing :

AND WHEREAS the previous sanction of the Governor-General has been obtained to the passing of this Act :

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. This Act may be called the Madras Impartible Estates (Amendment) Act, 1933, and it shall come into force.

force on such date as the Local Government may, by notification, in the Fort St. George Gazette appoint.

2. After clause (3) of section 2 of the Madras Impartible Estates Act, 1904 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), the following clause shall be added, viz.,

An "estate" means an estate as defined by the Madras Proprietary Estates Village Services Act 11 of 1904.

3. After clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 4 of the said Act the following clause shall be inserted, viz.,

(c) (i) to exchange any impartible estate or part thereof for any other estate or part thereof fetching a net income not less than that of the impartible estate or part thereof for which it is exchanged;

(ii) to sell an impartible estate or part thereof and to invest the sale-proceeds in the purchase of an estate or portion of an estate more advantageously situated and fetching a net income not less than that of the alienated impartible estate or portion thereof;

Provided that the Collector of the district certifies that the transaction is not disadvantageous to the holder of the impartible estate concerned and provided also that it shall be open to the Local Government, on appeal thereto, to modify or set aside the decision of the Collector granting or refusing to grant a certificate.

4. After sub-section (2) of section 4 of the said Act the following clause shall be inserted, viz.,

(3) The estate or portion thereof exchanged for or purchased with the sale-proceeds of an impartible estate or part thereof under clause (c) of sub-section (2) of this section shall be treated as impartible for any of the purposes of this Act.

5. Sub-section (3) of section 4 of the said Act is to be re-numbered as sub-section (4) of section 4.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Impartible Estates Act of 1904 made the alienation of certain specified estates or parts thereof illegal except under the conditions laid down in the Hindu Law governing the properties of joint Hindu families. This has proved disadvantageous from two points of view. On the one hand, the Kinda Law is not quite definite on this point, as it appears from the large number of decisions which are being given by the several High Courts and which are not always reconcilable. On the other hand, big estates have their own peculiar problems and it is unfair to subject them to a law which governs properties of varying sizes—but mostly small.

It is not intended here to legislate as regards the fact. The Kinda Law as interpreted by the several decisions will continue to govern the question of the alienation of inalienable estates. But it is intended here to put on a definite legal basis two kinds of alienation of these estates or parts thereof, viz., (1) exchange of such inalienable estates or portions thereof for estates or portions of estates fetching equal incomes, and (2) sale of such inalienable estates or portions thereof, with a view to purchase estates or portions of estates fetching equal incomes.

Leading lawyers are of opinion that exchange is permissible under the law as it now stands but that the sale of portions of estates for acquiring other properties may not be so permissible. The intention of this amending Act is to put on a definite basis what is not definite and what may be contestable.

The advantages of this amendment are considerable to the big landholders, while it is in no way prejudicial to the interests of the ryots. Many of the estates of the bigger landholders are encumbered and in these days when the administrative expenses are soaring up higher and higher, it is only right that they should, so far as possible, make their estates self-sufficient blocks and thus reduce the cost of administration. The spirit of the Inalienable Estates Act, viz., to preserve the integrity of the ancient estates, is not violated in any way, but is, on the other hand, furthered by this amendment.

As can be seen from the provisions of the amendment, sufficient safeguards are provided to prevent abuse of the powers conferred under it.
